

Transfer Assets To Fidelity

Use this form to move some or all assets from another firm to Fidelity. Type on screen or print out and fill in using CAPITAL letters and black ink. If you need more room for information or signatures, use a copy of the relevant page.

Helpful To Know

- This form isn't right for all transfers. Call Fidelity if you are:
 - converting an IRA to a Roth IRA
 - rolling over from a 401(k), 403(b) or other workplace plan
 - transferring from a non-retirement checking account
 - transferring between retirement accounts and there is ANY difference in how the names appear on the accounts
- Most transfers are faster at fidelity.com/toa.
- Use one form for each account you're transferring out of.
- Transfers can create legal issues (especially around beneficiaries and form of ownership) as well as tax issues and financial risks. Consult the appropriate professionals before making a transfer.
- Avoid delays! Attach a recent account statement!

3. Assets to Transfer to Fidelity

Your assets will be transferred as shown at right. EXCEPTIONS:

- if you hold a mutual fund directly with a fund firm (not in a brokerage account), you can request that we instruct the fund firm to sell your shares and transfer the cash
- if a money market fund is non-transferable, we will instruct the fund firm to sell the shares and transfer the cash
- if any other asset is non-transferable, it will remain where it is

In all other cases, if you want a non-cash asset transferred as cash, you must liquidate the asset at your current firm before submitting this form.

Asset Type	Generally Transferred As
Cash, annuities, CDs held at a bank	Cash; see options below
CDs held in a brokerage account	CDs ("in kind")

4. Differences in Owner Name(s) or Account Type

If there is ANY difference in the owner name(s) or account type between Section 1 and Section 2, you must take the following steps:

Non-retirement Accounts: If the difference(s) between your Section 1 and Section 2 information are listed at right, attach any documents indicated. If the difference is not listed, contact Fidelity for instructions BEFORE you submit this form. In either case, all owners must sign this form, and the terms in Section 5 for "Differences in owner name(s) or account type" apply to you.

Retirement Accounts: Contact Fidelity for instructions BEFORE you submit this form.

Differences Between Accounts	Documents to Attach
Last name changed	Marriage/divorce certificate
First/middle changed or listed differently	Letter explaining difference
One account is joint, the other is individual	None
Different trustee(s) listed	Updated trust document
First account is trust, second is individual or joint	Dissolution of trust

5. Signatures and Dates ALL owners of BOTH accounts must sign and date.

By signing below, you:

- Direct Fidelity and the delivering firm to act on all instructions given on this form, including transferring assets to Fidelity.
- Accept that any assets not readily transferable might not be transferred within the time frames set by FINRA or other applicable authorities.
- Authorize the delivering firm to sell any non-transferable money fund shares, and any shares of other mutual funds that you have requested be sold, and transfer the proceeds as cash.
- Accept that Fidelity is not responsible for changes in the value of assets that may occur during the transfer process.
- Affirm that you are aware of any tax or financial implications that may arise in connection with this transfer or with the sale or liquidation of any assets prior to transfer, including penalties, fees, financial losses, or losses of product features or benefits.

- Authorize the delivering firm to contact you about any assets that cannot be transferred.
- Authorize the delivering firm to deduct from your account any fees that you owe, and, if necessary, to sell assets in your account to pay those fees.
- Instruct the delivering firm to transfer any physical certificates in good deliverable form, including any necessary tax waivers.
- Authorize the delivering firm to cancel any open orders on your account when it receives this form.
- Affirm that you have destroyed or returned any credit/debit cards and unused checks associated with your account at the delivering firm, if closing that account.

All retirement accounts

- Affirm, if you are 70½ or older, that this transfer will not violate IRS rules on required minimum distributions.

SIMPLE IRAs

- Accept that the Date of First Participation will be the date that contributions are first deposited to your SIMPLE IRA at Fidelity by your employer, unless you provide a Date of First Participation.

Differences in owner name(s) or account type

- Acknowledge the existence of any differences in the owner name(s) or account type between Section 1 and Section 2.

ALL owners of BOTH accounts must sign and date. If an owner's name appears differently on different accounts, that owner must sign both ways. Ask Fidelity or your current firm if you need a signature guarantee (available from most banks, credit unions, and other financial institutions). If you do, provide one for each owner. A notary seal/stamp is NOT a signature guarantee.
